Zedira supports Gordon Conference on “Transglutaminases In Human Disease Processes”

Zedira is very proud to support the Gordon Conference dedicated to Transglutaminase.

The conference will be held July 18-23, 2010 at Davidson College in Davidson, North Carolina, USA.

The 2010 Gordon Conference on "Transglutaminases in Human Disease Processes" is the first Gordon Conference to focus on this rapidly expanding field. The meeting will cover cutting-edge research on the biology of transglutaminases and the role of this family of enzymes in disease processes.
